

THE BEST GIFT I EVER GOT

j. pollard

A simple song
With a simple beat -
That's all you've ever asked for

Something true
Maybe a little sweet,
But with a groove
That'll move you to the floor

Not too deep
But from the heart -
Feelings often unexpressed

Here we go,
It's just a start -
A slight departure from life's constant stress

Just a thought here, one little thing
What I was getting I never really knew
It's worth repeating, letting you know
The best gift I ever got was you

You – A woman
    A heart so pure and true
You – A partner
    Carrying me through
You – A mystery
    Never ceasing to amaze
You – I'll love you
    For the rest of my days

Sweet as an angel
A heart that cares
You've won my heart for sure

A precious smile
Soul beyond compare
There's nothing we two can't endure

A wife of noble character is her husband's crown
You've got enough character for every city and state around Your compassion, my attraction, a reaction to your love
Don't ever go, I know that this love flows straight down from above
